

Jury Instruction No. _____

Deposition testimony is testimony that was taken under oath before trial and has been preserved [in writing][by video]. This testimony is entitled to the same consideration that you give any other testimony at this trial.