

Jury Instruction No. _____

In fixing the amount of money which will reasonably and fairly compensate plaintiff, you should consider that one who is damaged must exercise ordinary care to minimize existing damages and to prevent further damages. Plaintiff may not recover for losses which could have been prevented by reasonable efforts by plaintiff.

The burden of proof with respect to this issue is on the defendants.