

NOTICE OF BANKRUPTCY JUDGE VACANCY
DISTRICT OF WYOMING

The United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit seeks applications for a bankruptcy judgeship in the District of Wyoming. Bankruptcy judges are appointed to 14-year terms pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §152. The position will be available after February 28, 2015. The current annual salary is $183,172.

The official duty station for the position is in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Because the District of Wyoming has a relatively low bankruptcy caseload at this time, the incumbent will be expected to carry a partial caseload in the District of Colorado and may be expected to assist other bankruptcy courts in the circuit.

To qualify for appointment an applicant must:

- a) Be a member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of at least one state, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and a member in good standing of every other bar of which the applicant is a member.
- b) (1) Possess, and have a reputation for, integrity and good character; (2) possess, and have demonstrated, a commitment to equal justice under the law; (3) possess, and have demonstrated, outstanding legal ability and competence; (4) indicate by demeanor, character, and personality that the applicant would exhibit judicial temperament if appointed; and (5) be of sound physical and mental health sufficient to perform the essential duties of the office.
- c) Not be related by blood or marriage to (1) a judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit; (2) a member of the Judicial Council of the Tenth Circuit; or (3) a judge of the District of Wyoming, within the degrees specified in 28 U.S.C. §458 at the time of the initial appointment.
- d) Have been engaged in the active practice of law or other suitable law-related occupation for a period of at least five years.

The selection process will be confidential and competitive. Applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, age, gender, religion, national origin, or disability unless such disability causes the applicant to be unable to perform the essential duties of the office.
