

SENTENCINGS

before the Hon. Martha Vázquez

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

The parties are advised that at the time of sentencing the Court may impose special sentencing conditions, which may include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following: Submit to DNA collection and compliance with statutory requirements while incarcerated in BOP or at direction of USPO; Not possess or have any access to firearms, explosive devices or any other dangerous weapons; Participate in a substance abuse program at the direction of USPO; Participate in a mental health program at the direction of USPO; Submit to drug testing at the direction of USPO; Submit to search of person, property, or automobile under defendant's control; Consume no alcohol; Not frequent establishments that serve or sell alcohol; Have no contact with the victim(s) at anytime.

If the Defendant is a convicted sex offender, the following conditions may also apply: Register as a sex offender at the Sheriff's Office or designated agency, in the county of residence, within the time frame required by state statute; Participate in sex offender treatment and submit to risk assessment testing, clinical polygraph testing, and other specific sex offender tests, as directed the probation officer; Grant a limited waiver of defendant's right of confidentiality and any records of mental health treatment imposed as a consequence of this judgment and allow the treatment provider to provide information to the probation officer, and sign all necessary releases to enable the probation officer to monitor the defendant's progress; Not possess any materials including images, books, writing, drawings, videos, or video games depicting and/or describing sexually explicit conduct or child pornography as defined in 18 U.S.C. 2256(2) and 2256(8); Submit to search of person, property, vehicles, business, computers and residence to be conducted in a reasonable manner and at a reasonable time, for the purpose of detecting sexually explicit material at the direction of the probation officer and inform any residents that the premises may be subject to a search; Not enter the premises, or loiter near the victim(s)' residence, except when approved in advance and in writing by the probation officer; Not have contact with children under the age of 18 without prior written permission of the probation officer; Must immediately report unauthorized contact with children to the probation officer; Restricted from engaging in an occupation where defendant has access to children, without prior approval of the probation officer; must not loiter within 100 feet of school yards, parks, playgrounds, arcades, or other places used primarily by children under the age of 18; Not volunteer for any activities in which defendant supervises children or adults with mental or physical disabilities.